Docket No. CRT 84-1 83CD

ORDER

Multimedia Entertainment, Inc. (Multimedia) filed a motion to dismiss from MPAA's Phase II claim the motion picture, "The Thirty-Nine Steps," and any other films which are in the public domain but are being represented by MPAA through the copyright ownership of the underlying work. Multimedia argues that the claim filed by Janus Films was not sufficient to put Multimedia on notice of the underlying work. MPAA responded that Janus Films' claim was sufficient, that according to a district court opinion, Janus Films had the exclusive rights to the motion picture. The Tribunal considers that Janus Films' claim is satisfactory under the procedures currently in place for this proceeding, but that, in the future, we may solicit comments regarding modification of procedures concerning filing information. Accordingly, the motion filed by Multimedia is denied.

Further, there being no other outstanding matters to be resolved in Phase II, the Phase II record in this proceeding is closed.
